Combining security and savings

Be doubly efficient by combining security and savings!

Equip your home with a security system and enjoy many benefits thanks to L'UNION CANADIENNE's Home Prevention program.

Discounts will be granted according to the type of protection offered by your alarm system, but particularly with the Intégral Option offered exclusively by our supplier, Le Groupe Intégral. This protection provides the following benefits:

- No monthly fees for the monitoring station services
- No deductible to pay in the event of a claim, up to $300
- Increase of up to 30% of your living expenses in the event of a fire
- Preservation of the discount linked to a good insurance record despite a claim
