

Personal Insurance/ Off-Road Vehicles and snowmobile Insurance

MaxNeige

IMPORTANT: Amendment to the off-road vehicles law:

Since June 13, 2006, all off-road vehicles drivers must be at least 16 years old. Drivers under 18 must hold a certificate of proficiency.

Under the off-road vehicles law, owners of all-terrain vehicle must have an FPQ #1 insurance contract, guaranteeing compensation for material damage or injury caused by their vehicle. The minimum amount required by the law is $ 500 000.

You can increase your liability limit to $ 2 000 000 via your insurance broker.

The MaxNeige program has two major sections:

Liability insurance included in the trail right of access. Indeed, by obtaining the right of access to trails, snowmobiler member of the PCMQ will automatically become the holder of a of $ 500 000 liability insurance. By integrating this ass
Damage to the snowmobile.

MaxNeige, the official program of true snowmobile enthusiasts.

* Certain conditions apply, check with your insurance broker for more information.